

Computing & Online Safety

- Coding work on Purple Mash
- Audit of Online Safety Knowledge
- Online Privacy

Science

- Forces: friction, air resistance, water resistance, gravity.
- Planning, carrying out and evaluating an investigation into forces.

History

- Ancient Maya- the physical and cultural features of the Maya Civilisation, the historical context and comparisons with Britain at that time.
- Developing chronological understanding, sequencing, historical analysis and interpretation, evidence-based historical inquiry, communication and presentation of historical knowledge and understanding of historical concepts and terms

PSHE

Me and my relationships:

- Healthy relationships
- Balancing relationships and being a good friend
- Developing assertiveness skills for confident communication

English

- Key terms and usage with punctuation and grammar
- Sentence and paragraph writing skills.
- Checking and editing skills
- Analytical essay writing (Plus spelling and handwriting)
- Developing retrieval, vocabulary, summarising and inference skills through information and narrative texts based around the theme of 'The History of Computer Games'.
- Our first class read is 'Northern Lights' by Philip Pullman.

Learning & Caring Together

Topic Web

Term: Autumn 1
2024

Cover Class Year 5/6

Maths

- Place value (reading, writing, partitioning and comparing numbers up to 7 digits, rounding, negative numbers, roman numerals.
- Addition and subtraction (up to 6 digits)
- Multiplication and division (multiples, factors, prime, square and cube numbers, rules of divisibility, multiplying and dividing by 10, 100 and 1000.

RE

Investigating Christian beliefs (linked to bible verses) about the nature of God. Reflecting on God's nature as both loving and holy.

PE

- Swimming every Thursday
- Invasion games

Art

- Developing skills in using different art styles,
- Exploring effects with tools
- Creating symbolic and expressive drawings

Music

Film Music:

- how musical styles and elements shape the mood of a film
- Confident use of musical terms in discussion
- Create and interpret musical scores to represent themes and scenes.

French

- France and French culture
- Recco and revision of greetings and introductions, numbers and colours.